Campaign kicks off for Cunningham statue

FOOTBALL fans, residents and businesses are being urged to help raise money to build a statue of former England footballer Laurie Cunningham in Leyton.

A fundraising campaign was launched on Monday in the week that Laurie would have celebrated his 60th birthday. It is being led by Waltham Forest Council, with support from Leyton Orient FC, where Cunningham started his career in 1974 and football's equality and inclusion organisation Kick It Out. A statue will be raised in his honour in Coronation Gardens near Orient's ground. A council spokesman said Laurie's successful career paved the way for other black athletes. JUNIOR doctors walked out in a third strike in their dispute over a new contract.

The 48-hour action began at 8am on Wednesday and is set to finish at 8am on Friday, with only emergency care being provided by those taking part.

Junior doctors at Whipps Cross Hospital in Leytonstone, King George, Goodmayes and Queen's Hospital, Romford, are taking part in the nationwide strikes.

Barts Health NHS Trust, which runs Whipps Cross, said in a statement: "We have taken steps to ensure that our staff can continue to provide high standards of patient safety and care on strike days."

"The role of the trust is to provide safe and compassionate care for all our patients while also maintaining our duty of care to our own staff."

Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt

Junior doctors' union says imposing unfair contract will demoralise a generation and harm patient care

STRIKE: Junior Doctors on the picket line at Whipps Cross Hospital at the start of a 48-hour walkout said last month that new contracts would be imposed on junior doctors after negotiations between the Government and the British Medical Association (BMA) did not reach a solution.

A BMA spokesperson said: "The BMA does regret the disruption to patients that will be caused by the current industrial action, but the Government has left junior doctors with no choice."

"Ministers have made it clear they intend to impose a contract that is unfair on junior doctors and will undermine the delivery of patient care in the long term."

"Our door remains open to talks, but the Government must realise that its current policies are threatening to demoralise a generation of junior doctors and damage patient care in the future."

Two rounds of strike action took place in January and February.

Further 48-hour strikes are planned from April 6 to April 8, and between April 26 and 28.

COMPETITION

Five pairs of tickets to Bard's classic rom-com

SHAKESPEARE'S Much Ado About Nothing is at Queen's Theatre, Hornchurch, and we have FIVE pairs of tickets to give away to see it.

His much-loved romantic comedy will be entertaining audiences at the theatre until Saturday, March 26.

The production, which is the first play directed by the theatre's new artistic director, Douglas Rintoul, commemorates the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death.

It is the end of the Second World War and Leonato throws a party for the victorious Duke and his troops.

Claudio falls in love with Hero and Hero with Claudio, and nothing will keep them apart.

But Claudio's friend Benedick loves Beatrice and Beatrice loves Benedick, but nothing will bring them together – they just will not admit it.

Only the devious scheming of a resentful prince forces Benedick to prove his love for Beatrice.

Filled with mistaken identities, deceptions and misunderstandings, Much Ado About Nothing is Shakespeare's most riotous comedy, and Beatrice and Benedick are his wittiest lovers.

Tickets to see Much Ado About Nothing, which cost from £12.50 to £27, are available by calling the theatre box office on 01708 443333 or booking via queens-theatre.co.uk.

For your chance to win one of five pairs of tickets to see the production at 8pm on Tuesday, March 22, answer the following question.

Q: Beatrice loves which character in Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing?

A: Claudio
B: Benedick
C: Leonato

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1683) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YAUQUEENS (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, March 17. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged. Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

WHAT A DISASTER!

MORE than 80 students from Barking and Dagenham College took part in a disaster drill.

The public services students participated in the four day Exercise Unified Response, which simulated a tower block collapsing into Waterloo Underground Station packed with passengers.

It was staged at Littlebrook Power Station in Dartford and included 2,000 volunteers playing casualties amid upturned Tube trains and thousands of tons of rubble.

London Fire Brigade organised the exercise involving more than 70 organisations.

Tutor Tim Bamforth-White said: "This was a fantastic opportunity for our students. They were able to get a sense of the scale of such an emergency and the planning, organisation and levels of communication and teamwork necessary to manage an incident of this magnitude."

Runaway extradited from Norway hideout and returns for manslaughter verdict

16 years for fugitive killer

A MAN has been jailed for 16 years for the manslaughter of a man in Southend in 2014, after which he fled the country to avoid justice.

Abdulfatah Suleiman, 28, of no fixed address, appeared at Chelmsford Crown Court today, Tuesday, March 8, for sentencing having been convicted last month. He has also been given a five-year extended licence.

Suleiman was found by a jury to be one of those responsible for the death of Anton Levin, 24, from Dagenham. The crime was carried out at a house in St Anns Road, Southend, on November 19, 2014. Another man was also injured at the same location. Suleiman was convicted of manslaughter as well as robbery and unlawful wounding.

In June 2015, three people were convicted for their parts in Mr Levin's death.

Danielle Russell, now 27, from Southend, and two teenage boys were found guilty of manslaughter, conspiracy to commit GBH on the other man. They were also guilty of conspiracy to commit robbery.

JUSTICE Suleiman (top) jailed for manslaughter of Anton Levin

Russell was jailed for 11 years and the teens were sentenced to ten years four months with a five-year extended licence.

Suleiman was arrested in Norway in June 2015 after the conclusion of the other trial and extradited back to the UK, returning on August 11.

Following the sentencing today, Anton's mother released a statement: "We are very disappointed that this man Suleiman was found guilty of manslaughter and not murder."

"He has been jailed for 16 years, but I would have preferred that he had been jailed for life."

"I hope he thinks about the harm and distress he has caused me and my family. But this will never bring my son back."

THERE'S WALLY: James Oglethorpe Primary School Years 1 and 2

Wally and pals come to school for World Book Day

CHILDREN at a school in Upminster have been celebrating World Book Day.

The pupils at James Oglethorpe Primary School in Ashvale Gardens dressed up last Thursday as their favourite characters to mark the annual event which helps to promote reading.

photographer Martin Dalton visited the school and took this selection of photographs.

World Book Day celebrates authors, illustrators, books and reading.

It's the biggest celebration of its kind, is designated by UNESCO as a worldwide celebration, and marked in more than 100 countries.

CARE CALLING

HAVEN House Children's Hospice has launched a campaign to recruit "super nurses" from across Chingford and Highams Park.

The Woodford Green hospice wants to support 500 children each year in north and north east London, west Essex and east Hertfordshire by the end of the decade. This is part of its five-year strategy, Vision 2020, which requires an expanded care team.

Haven House's "super nurses" are ideally NHS band five or six and will join its clinical care team.

Eileen White, director of care at Haven House, said: "Parents tell us that our compassionate and enthusiastic nurses make a world of difference to their lives. They provide essential respite care which helps them cope with the constant demands of looking after a seriously-ill child."

"Like many hospices in the country, we have seen greater demand on our services in recent years. We need more nurses and healthcare support workers to respond to families' increasingly complex health needs."

Eileen joined Haven House in 2012, leading on education, training and development.

Since then, the hospice has delivered training in paediatric palliative care for nurses, allied healthcare professionals and GPs.

VOCATION Haven Hospice is looking for extraordinary nurses

However, Eileen feels that some clinicians still have a misinformed view about the realities of working in a children's hospice.

She said: "People told me I would be 'de-skilling' myself working in a hospice, compared to a hospital, but this couldn't be further from the truth."

"Our team has to be highly skilled to care for these children, who are often completely dependent on others. We are at the forefront of innovative paediatric palliative care."

"Working in a children's hospice offers a rewarding career. And the beautiful woodland of the hospice makes it such a magical place to work."

Best Friends Vets

BEST FRIENDS VETERINARY SURGERY

has been caring for the pets of Dagenham and the surrounding areas since 2002.

Much has changed at the surgery over the last 14 years, including the move to new purpose-built premises in 2009. However, the dedication of the long-serving staff, competitive pricing and range of food and medication stocked for your pets has remained consistent.

The wide range of treatments and additional services that Best Friends offers its clients are the reasons why the Dagenham surgery is favoured by local pet owners.

Not only does it offer a preventative care scheme (paid for by setting up an easy and affordable monthly direct debit) and its own pet insurance policy, it will also pay for clients' parking for the first 30 minutes while they visit the vet.

Now that really is customer service at its finest. The surgery continues to offer everything from routine vaccinations and monitoring of existing medical conditions, to surgery, x-rays and nurse consultations on issues such as pet weight, puppy training and behavioural issues.

It also operates a "price promise" system, whereby it will match any price offered for a procedure or medication by another veterinary practice within a five-mile radius. You are also guaranteed to be greeted by a friendly familiar face, as most of the surgery's staff have worked for the company for more than ten years and therefore know their clients and their pet's medical histories inside out.

■ Please contact the surgery on 020 8595 5818 to book your appointment now.

QUEEN LIVING

TWO community champions have taken part in a tidy-up as part of the Clean for The Queen campaign.

Lesley Dunn and Lesley Davey cleaned up an area around Roneo Corner near to their Tesco superstore in Hornchurch on Friday.

They filled 40 bags of rubbish between them.

Their effort was part of the campaign, which aims to tidy up Britain ahead of Her Majesty's 90th birthday.

Lesley Dunn said: "It is my 65th birthday in June and I thought it would be great to do something for the Queen's 90th.

"When the Queen came to the throne litter wasn't such a problem, because we didn't have so much disposable packaging. But now it seems to be everywhere."

O'S SUFFER FOR DEFENSIVE SLIP

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 0 Luton Town 1
by Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

KEVIN Nolan's O's play-off hopes suffered another blow on Saturday after Jack Marriott's first-half strike saw the Hatters claim a fourth consecutive victory.

Nolan admitted: "I'm really disappointed we conceded such a sloppy goal, especially with the quality we have in the back four and really experienced centre-halves. I'm disappointed and I told them that. I hope we will start taking those silly little errors out."

The player-boss made two changes from the midweek draw at Carlisle. Sammy Moore, a second-half sub at Brunton Park got the nod over Jack Payne. While Ollie Palmer, another Tuesday sub and scorer of the O's second goal, started in preference to the benched Calaum Jahraldo-Martin.

Former long-serving Orient centre-half Scott Cuthbert starred for the Hatters.

The O's made a positive start with Jerome Binnom-Williams and gaffer Nolan going close before Palmer saw an effort blocked.

But the Hatters soaked up the pressure and hit the O's on a 27th minute counter-attack, when Shaun Brisley made a hash of Craig Mackail-Smith's knock-on and Marriott nipped in and chipped home over a stranded Alex Cisak.

Seconds later Brisley's indifferent afternoon took a turn for the worse, and after prolonged treatment, he was stretchered off with a head injury following a collision from a Moore free-kick.

But from then on Orient rarely troubled the Luton defence, but Binnom-Williams's weak effort was easily foiled by Jon Mitchell, before a well-placed Palmer could only guide a Moore cross over.

The second half was one-way traffic, but Luton, when required, got 10 men behind the ball and it wasn't until the introduction of Armand Gnanduillet that a jaded-looking forward line managed to trouble a Luton defence well-marshalled by an inspired Cuthbert.

Gnanduillet at least forced the grossly underworked Mitchell into a couple of late stops, but there was no way through, leaving Nolan cutting a frustrated figure at the final whistle.

Nolan is looking for a reaction from his squad and said: "Of course [I am] but it will be tough at Oxford (Saturday, kick-off 3pm) next weekend. I'm a positive lad and I told the players that. I believe in the squad and they can still go on and get the momentum in the latter part of the season."

"Today is a kick up the backside and we must now go on and play in the right way. I've told the lads that they must come in on Tuesday and be ready to train, and that there is no moping about. I won't stand for that."

Recent signing Nicky Hunt added: "For a game of which we dominated the vast majority, it's frustrating for us as we have come in with a one-nil loss and they had two shots all game. I don't think we had enough going forward today – that we'd had in the previous weeks – we didn't work their keeper enough on his debut. The performance was there, but we just couldn't get a goal."

Nolan's former Bolton teammate concluded: "There are no easy games in this division even though we won the first five games of the season thinking this league might be quite simple. But it's definitely not."

"These last ten games are absolutely massive. We respect every team we play. But we know we've got a lot in that changing room that can dominate teams."

Leyton Orient: Alex Cisak, Nicky Hunt, Mathieu Baudry (captain), Shaun Brisley (Jobi McAnuff 38) Jerome Binnom-Williams, Sean Clohessy, Nigel Atangana, Kevin Nolan, Sammy Moore (Calaum Jahraldo-Martin 67), Ollie Palmer (Armand Gnanduillet 61) Jay Simpson.

Luton Town: Jon Mitchell, Stephen O'Donnell, Scott Cuthbert (captain), Jonathan Smith, Dan Potts (Magnus Okuonghae 87), Ollie Lee, Paddy McCourt (Pelly Ruddock-Mpanzu 66), Cameron McGeehan, Paddy McKail-Smith, Jack Marriott (Danny Green 77).

Referee: Charles Breakspear
Assistants: Dean Treleavan and Craig Taylor.
Attendance: 5,684.

Non-league round-up

Braintree boost play-off chances

By Brian Jeeves

BRAINTREE Town further enhanced their National League play-off hopes after Simeon Akinola's brace sunk big spending Eastleigh at Cressing Road.

Akinola did the damage near the end of each half, carrying the in-form Iron into fourth place.

In the National South Concord Rangers appeared to be on their way to three points after goals from Steve Cawley and Steve King fired the Beach Boys into a 2-0 lead against Wealdstone at the Aspec Arena.

But the Londoners hit back through Jefferson Louis and Scott Davies to grab a draw.

Chelmsford City had a fruitless journey to the West Country after a single strike from Craig Duff earned hosts Truro City a 1-0 victory.

In the Ryman Premier Division East Thurrock United continued their promotion push with a 3-0 victory over Tonbridge Angels. Sam Higgins, James Walker and Kyle Ruel were on target for the Rocks.

There was nothing between Brentwood Town and Billericay Town who shared the points after a 1-1 draw at the Arena. But it was an afternoon to forget for a couple of the region's other Premier Division clubs.

Bogdan Vastsuk hit a hat-trick, while Charlie Allen and Dennis Olii also found the net as Farnborough thrashed Grays Athletic 5-0. And it was a similarly painful experience for Canvey Island who were hit for five without reply by Hampton & Richmond Borough, Nicke Kabamba grabbing a treble for the hosts.

Tilbury were the big winners in Ryman League Division One North. Tony Martin was a hat-trick hero for the Dockers, while Daniel Glozier added a fourth from the penalty spot in a 4-0 win at neighbours Aveley. Jay Nash and Jacob Cleaver were on target as Great Wakering Rovers won 2-1 at bottom of the table Redbridge. Carlos Espirito-Santos replied for the Motormen.

Barkingside saw off Wroxham by the odd goal in three at the Cricklefield Stadium, Michael Spencer and Michael Adeniyi with the goals. And there was an entertaining 3-2 victory for Witham Town at Haringey Borough.

AFC Hornchurch were held to a 1-1 draw by AFC Sudbury at Bridge Avenue. Craig Parker fired the visitors into a second half lead, with David Knight hitting back to ensure a point for the Urchins.

But there was a 2-1 home defeat for Brightlingsea Regent as Gray Wanderers pinched the points with a 2-1 success.

In the Essex Senior League Barking won a thrilling encounter at Mayesbrook Park with Waltham Forest 4-2, and there was a 3-0 triumph for Enfield 1893 against struggling Burnham Ramblers. There were 3-1 away wins for Sporting Bengal United, at Tower Hamlets, and Greenhouse London, at Wadham Lodge, while FA Vase heroes Bowers & Pitsea edged out Southend Manor 1-0.

Elsewhere London Bari and Ilford played out a competitive 1-1 draw at the Old Spotted Dog.

In selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League, Harold Wood Athletic eased past Newbury Forest 3-0 in their Premier Division encounter. In Division One Shenfield AFC thrashed Ongar Town 7-0 and Basildon Town won 4-1 at Galleywood.

There were plenty of goals in Division Two where Ryan saw off East Londoners 4-3 and Great Baddow squeezed passed Rochford Town 3-2. While in Division Three Broomfield won 6-0 at Southend Sports.

■ AMBITIOUS Youth outfit Southendian Manor have announced plans to stage a Fan Park during the summer's European Championships. Manor plan to show Wales' clash with Slovakia and England's tie with Russia on a 12 square metre outdoor screen at the Garon Park ground on Saturday, June 11. There will also be other activities during the day, including football coaching, games, competitions and bouncy castles for the children.

Further details are to be announced.

Brinn setting sights on Rio

Gymnastics

BRINN Bevan has returned to training after injury and set his sights on booking a spot at the Rio Olympics.

The 18-year-old from Southend suffered a break of the tibia and fibula in his left leg – a freak accident in his warm-up for the British Teams Championships in November – and was sidelined after undergoing surgery.

It was a blow for the GB first year senior after winning a team silver at the World Championships in October and hit his chances of competing in Brazil in the summer. His coach Scott Hann says Brinn will now compete with limited routines at the English Championships on March 19 and his training is now at about 80 per cent of where it was before the injury.

Brinn said on his YouTube channel: "This part of the journey is going to be a lot harder than the rest of it."

"All I have got to do is concentrate on my rehab programme and building the strength back in my leg."

Blues in last-minute agony

Southend United

Southend United 0

Chesterfield 1

Brian Jeeves reporting from Roots Hall Stadium

SOUTHEND passed up the chance to close the gap on the Sky Bet League One play-off places after a last-minute goal from Lee Novak earned Chesterfield victory on Saturday.

Blues have been frustrating of late. A convincing victory over league leaders Burton Albion was followed by lacklustre displays against Port Vale and Crewe.

Chesterfield arrived at Roots Hall just three points, and places, above the League One drop zone. But the Spireites had won each of their last four outings.

The Blues started brightest and should have grabbed the lead inside the opening two minutes.

David Worrall nodded Ben Coker's centre against an upright, then sent the rebound straight to Chesterfield keeper Tommy Lee.

The visitors responded, but Daniel Bentley turned aside Ollie Banks' curling effort. Soon after Banks tried his luck from distance again but his strike was too high.

Declan John fired into Bentley's arms, while Jack Payne carried a considerable threat as Southend probed for an opening. But it was Chesterfield who looked the more likely to score. Novak's goalbound header was turned away by Bentley, while Connor Damaio tested the Blues keeper with a shot.

Payne was close with the opening chance of the second half, firing an angled drive across the face of goal after working a short corner routine with Coker.

At the other end John fired over after Banks picked him out.

Barnett was unable to turn in Payne's driven cross, while Wordsworth nodded wide Coker's pinpoint free-kick. Then Southend were denied by a brilliant double save from Lee.

The home fans screamed for a spot-kick after David Mooney appeared to be tumbled by Spireites defender Sam Hird. But referee Darren Drysdale waved away the appeals.

With time running out Banks found Novak and the ex-Huddersfield frontman produced a composed finish to score.

Blues boss Brown said: "It was all about the first goal. Danny [Wilson] hasn't come here to entertain, he's not come here to play and entertain the home crowd, he's come here for a reason."

"Obviously the 4-3-3 system he's put up against us shows he's come to get a point or all three, and they've got all three in the end."

"We've hit the post in the first couple of minutes, then the follow-up by Dave Worrall, that's got to go into the back of the net."

"If that goes into the back of the net then it becomes a different game altogether. The longer that goes on, the more frustrated we get. Tyrone Barnett has had a good chance with the header, John White follows up, everything should go into the back of the net as far as I'm concerned."

Chesterfield manager Wilson said: "We've said many times you have to be at your best, particularly coming away from home."

Southend United are next in league action on Saturday, March 12, away to Barnsley (3pm).
